

Weekend Assistant Cook

Do you have a passion for great food and enjoy working within a busy environment? Here at All Things Wild Nature Centre, we have had a significant upturn in visitor numbers and we are seeking an enthusiastic, hardworking and friendly individual to join our café team.

This is a varied role that will include; assisting with the preparation of good quality food and beverages, ensuring hygiene levels are maintained to a high standard and providing customers with excellent levels of customer service. The ideal applicant would need to be well organised with high volume catering experience being an advantage.

Working hours will primarily be weekends, with additional hours often available on bank holidays and during school holidays.

Day to Day Duties will include:

- Preparing simply cooked dishes to a high standard
- Making sandwiches and salads
- Serving customers in a pleasant and courteous manner
- Cleaning the kitchen and café area in accordance with Health and Safety Regulations and Guidance
- Ensure the highest standards of cleanliness at all times
- Keeping cleaning and temperature records
- Undertaking the preparation of the food and beverages served in the café
- Clearing tables
- Washing up
- Ensuring shelves and fridges are fully stocked
- Carry out general tasks including routine maintenance and cleaning duties
- Maintaining such records as are required by the Café Manager

Key requirements:

- Must have a 'can do' attitude
- An excellent time keeper
- Work well as part of a team
- Be able to communicate well and support a team of casual, part time staff to ensure the cafe maintains its current standards

Desirable:

Experience of working in a kitchen or café environment

DBS checked

To Apply

Please send your CV and covering letter to Rebecca Harris, All Things Wild Nature Centre, Station Road, Honeybourne, Nr Evesham, Worcestershire WR11 7QZ. Alternatively, you can email careers5@allthingswild.co.uk.